

GALLATIN NEWS Examiner

FRIDAY » DECEMBER 2, 2016 » GALLATIN, TENNESSEE » SERVING SUMNER COUNTY SINCE 1841

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2016 • 7A

Gail and Clarence Payne of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul in Gallatin accepted Goodwill's Community Partner of the Year Award during Goodwill's Impact Luncheon in Franklin.

Gallatin nonprofit honored by Goodwill

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, operating from St. John Vianney Catholic Church in Gallatin was named Community Partner of the Year Award by Goodwill Industries of Middle Tennessee during Goodwill's Impact Luncheon in Franklin on Nov. 17.

The organization helps individuals and families in crisis in Gallatin and Sumner County by providing temporary funding assistance for housing, power and water bills, gasoline for transportation and other necessities, the society helps stabilize its clients' lives.

Often, the next step is finding a job, and for the last eight years, the society has referred its clients to Goodwill for career services and job fairs.